BIG STRIKE MADE IDAHO MARYLAND DITCH DIGGING INJURES THE MERGER

One of the largest strikes of high grade ore made in recent years in the Nevada county mining district is the good news emanating from the famous old Idaho Maryland property which has a past production record of $28,000,00 with over $7,000,000 paid in dividends during the heydey of its glorious career. For several years it has been operating under the superintendency of Errol MacBoyle who has handled a merger with the Brunswick property and is preparing to go on a large production basis the coming year.

During the Bulkeley Wells regime a crosscut was run into the Dorsey ground in the footwall of the Eureka-Idaho-Maryland vein system on one of the deeper levels but was discontinued. The crosscut was continued for some feet further under a later management. Recently the ledge was picked up in the face of the crosscut by accident and a big ledge showing fine milling values up to 12 feet in width has been disclosed. No specimen rock has appeared but the ledge matter shows excellent milling values.

For around two years now the company has been dropping 20 stamps regularly and with the addition of additional equipment expects to increase largely the mill capacity.

Future operations of the company on a large scale contemplate the use of the Brunswick shaft and unified operation of the Idaho Maryland, Brunswick and Union Hill properties.

The operations attending digging of the diversion ditch between Deer creek and Wolf creek is causing grave concern to the operators of the Western Merger mine due to power line interference. The moving of the poles from the right of way has necessitated the cutting off of the power supply to the Merger property by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. At such times the mining company which is dependent on power from this source is compelled to shut down its pumps and any protracted layoff will mean the flooding of the mine.

Superintendent Skewes stated on Saturday that owing to inability to secure satisfactory assurances as to future interruptions he is considering the installation of a gasoline engine for an auxiliary supply at least, in order that operations at the property may be kept moving continuously.

DITCH SIPHON REPORTED OUT OF COMMISSION

The Graniteville correspondent in the news budget from there, in this issue says: "It was reported here today that the siphon pipe on the Bowman and Spaulding ditch had filled with anchor ice and had broken out 40 feet of the pipe."

The following is from the Colfax Record of Saturday: "A large crew of men was rushed to Camp No. 19 eleven miles north of Emigrant Gap, from Sacramento, to repair part of the new flume that went down during the last storm. The flume is used by the Nevada Irrigation District to bring water from Bowman Lake to Lake Spaulding. It is believed that damage done to the flume was caused by a snow slide from the side of the mountain."

As to whether the two items refer to the same trouble is not known The siphon is of large wood construction and if anchor ice, the dread foe of the ditch tender in the mountains has entered into the situation, it is to be regretted.

ORANGES ARE PICKED IN FRENCH CORRAL TOWN

FRENCH CORRAL, Jan. 21 (Special to The Nugget)—We are having pleasant. sunny days, but Jack Frost is lurking in the shady places and while Old Sol is warming the other side he reigns supreme. One would hardly believe that in our vicinity we are picking oranges that have gone through a temperature of 20 degrees unhurt!! Down to 20 is unusual for this place, but we seem to be getting by okeh.

The orchardists here are pruning their trees while the fine weather lasts. Others are finishing up their plowing and sowing.

We hear there are prospects of two new families moving into our town. More later!

Mrs. K. Broyles and family were Sunday visitors from Sacamento.

Wm. Campbell of Sacramento and W. E. Moulton visited in San Juan Sunday. Mr. Campbell was a former resident o fthe Ridge and after many years finds many changes.

Frank Tackitt of Sacramento is on a visit to his old home place near French Corral.

F. S. Wood and wife and baby were visitors from Sweetland Tuesday. Mr. Wood has been working near Nevada City and is home on a short vacation.

Miss Millie Clerkin has returned to her home near French Corral after a week's sojourn in Sierra county.

Mrs. A. Bishop spent several days at her home in French Corral last week.

We are in true accord with some sentiment expressed this week's Nugget as to who really cares for Nevada County.

BAD ACCIDENT WAS NARROWLY AVERTED

The slippery pavement yesterday was responsible for a near fatality when the touring car piloted by M. J. O'Connor of Bichville crashed into the Sacramento stage at the Odgers place on Town Talk Ridge shortly afternoon. Tom Riddle who was driving the stage saw the machine skid toward him and he drove into the soft dirt at the side of the road hoping to avert a collision but was hit. The touring car suffered a badly smashed radiator and dented chassis.

Mr. O'Connor who was driving suffered cuts on his arms and legs while his sister Miss Theresa O'Connor who was sitting with him suffered cuts about the head when she was thrown against the windshield. The O'Connors were driving to Rough and Ready where Miss O'Connor is teaching school.

The O'Connors were taken to the Nevada City Sanitarium where their wounds were treated by Dr. A. H. Tickell.

We have had very cold weathe the past week, the thermometer registering around 9 and 10 degrees. A cold north wind did not improve it any but every one in town is enjoying good health. With all the cold weather some of the young fry have symptoms of Lindbergitis but no one is worrying about it being fatal as there are no airplanes in town for any of them trying to outdo Lindberg.

We were pleased to hear that Claude Ferguson had bought the Gaston properties and we wish him success in his venture.

It was reported here today that some of the siphon pipe on the Bowman to Spaulding ditch had filled with anchor ice and had broken out 40 feet of the pipe.

METTEER ORDERED TO RETURN OVERCHARGES

C. F. Metteer of Sacramento ,who is attorney for the Nevada Irrigation District, was on Saturday ordered by Superior Judge R. L. Thompson of Santa Rosa to return $18,000 worth of warrants belonging to Reclamation District 1001 which he has been holding for alleged services. Judge Thompson ruled that Metteer and his partner in the reclamation deal were not entitled to $68,000 worth of warrants which they procured from a board of directors in return for certain services which are held by the court to have been more of a political nature. The court held that Metteer's services in the matter were not worth to exceed $1500 The judgment is described as sweeping victory for the landowners who held that Metteer's and Gadd's fees were "unreasonable and vicious."

TO THE BUSINESS FIRMS OF NEVADA CITY

In the past accounts have been opened with students of the High School who represented some organization. This policy has resulted in a promiscuous distribution of accounts which are hard to control and pay.

It would be greatly appreciated by the High School administration if business firms would insist on an order for material, signed by a member of the faculty, before opening an account. This scheme would conform to methods adopted at the High School and simplify matters for both parties.

Signed—A. F. Isensee, Prin.

Thomas Hogan is in San Francisco to receive special medical attention.

The camping season of the organization begins on June 11th and lasts for six weeks.

The proposed site adjoins the recently acquired site of Mills College, upon which a $10,000 lodge has been built and in which Summer sessions will be held this year.

HALLETTS PROMPTNESS AVERTS SERIOUS FIRE

Cool headedness on the part of fire truck driver Herbert Hallett yesterday morning averted what might have developed into serious damage to the George B. Finnegan house on Main street. Electric light wires in close proximity to a hot stove pipe are presumed to have started the blaze which called the truck on a still alarm. Hallett chopped his way to the seat of the trouble and soon had the blaze under control.

LIONS CHARTER NIGHT IS A GLORIOUS SUCCESS

One of the biggest nights ever enjoyed in the colorful history of Nevada City was experienced last Tuesday night when the new Lions Club staged its Charter Night with a throng which crowded the upstairs banquet hall of the National Hotel to its very doors. The carnival spirit was present throughout the evening.

District Governor Wells of Riverside and Deputy Governor Byrl Babcock of Sacramento as toastmaster were in fine fettle and kept things moving smoothly to a climax. The presentation of the charter brought from President Dick Bigelow the assertion that Lions International was going to be well proud of the newest member of the family. The Lions from Auburn filled an important niche in the program and Wendell T. Robie who was largely responsible for the instituting of the new club here, was given a due meed of recognition. The Sacramento Clubs 'male quartet was warmly received as was Mrs. Sidney Talbot. Other musical numbers by visitors made an attractive program.

Marshs' Lumber Company has received several car loads of lumber to fill an order of the Morrison-Knudson Construction Company. The company is using the lumber for flumes and bridges on the 9 miles of Nevada Irrigation ditch just east of town. This lumber is first class material and the price will run into many hundreds of dollars.

FEDERAL POWER RULES AGAINST THE TRANSFER

The following article appeared in the Sacramento Bee of Saturday evening and is self explanatory:

"The Bee has received from Washington, D. C. a telegram stating that the Federal Power Commission has ruled against the transfer of power permits from the Nevada Irrigation District to the Pacific Electric and Development Company. The telegram also states that the application of the District to the general land office for an incidental power permit in connection with irrigation has also been denied and an appeal from this decision to the secretary of the interior has met a like fate.

The ruling affects the 98 year contract entered into between the District (A. L. Wisker, general manager,) and the company (A. L. Wisker, promoter and general manager,) whereby the company takes over and operates the district in return for the district's water power resources. The district now operating under a $7,250,000 bond issue, is designed to irrigate lands in Nevada, Placer and Yuba counties.

The telegram continues—"On April 22d of last year the Commission wrote Wisker that it could not approve the transfer of the power license from the District to the company without first having the contract submitted for approval. An examination of the contract shows it is a transfer of the license such as is forbidden in section 8 of the Water Power Act without the approval of the Commission. It is also a violation of the express provisions of article 26 of the license. Notice is hereby given that unless and until the contract has received approval, the Commisson cannot recognize the provisions of the contract as relieving the licensee from the obligations under the license and cannot recognize the Pacific Electric and Development Company as having any rights under the license.

The rest of the rejection told Wisker how to submit the contract with evidence showing the company to be duly incorporated in California, etc. Wisker replied to this latter that he was not going to violate the provisions of the license. Under the law the license is good for only fifty years, while the company was for 98 years, which is only one objection of the Commission to ratifying it. Later the irrigation district made application to the commissioner of the general land office for an incidental power permit in connection with irrigation, which was denied. The district appealed to the secretary of the interior who sustained the commissioner by a letter dated January 13th. The application was made under the old irrigation laws in effect before the organization of the federal power commission. The secretary stated that he was without authority of law to grant the application.

The diversions involved are Canyon Creek and the middle fork of the Yuba river."

WEALTH AND ALL THAT GOES WITH IT, IS YOURS

It is a mistake if you believe that wealth is reserved for a privileged few on this earth. It is yours if you are willing to pay the price, and nothing worth while is ever gained without some effort and sacrifice. And it does not mean drudgery or going without things you really need.

It is the difference between what you earn and what you spend that lays the foundation of a life of ease. Because, if you will consistently spend les than you earn, wealth and all that goes with it is yours. And it is so easy, once you get started on the right road.

Efficiency

DOWN the road it travels, one of the most efficient things on wheels. Coils of wire are stored inside. Tools are in the snug lockers. Pike poles and shovels are in their racks. A big winch is bolted to its frame and there are pipes of steel from which to form a sturdy derrick.

Sometimes it draws a trailer loaded with long, straight poles. Sometimes it bears a heavy reel of cable. Often its load is men.

The telephone truck gets many a glance as it passes. For whether on the peace-time job of construction and maintenance or bound to where snow and sleet have made for it a battle ground, it means power, speed, efficiency, economy and human loyalty, united in the task of making telephone service better, broader, more dependable.

HYDRAULIC MINERS ARE WAITING FOR RAINS

DOWNIEVILLE, Jan. 21, (Special to the Nugget)— The continued sold and clear weather is beginning to cause some apprehension among the hydraulic mine operators in this district. January usually a month of heavy snow fall, has passed so far practically without storm, and but a few feet of snow lies on the high ridges, where from eight to ten feet should be already packed.

The temperature at Downieville has dropped to fifteen degees, and in the colder part of the town a temperature of 32 degrees has been maintained entirely through the day.

While there is still time before spring for considerable snow fall the lack of heavy January precipitation will probably result in a snow pack under normal.

Ten hydraulic mines are waiting for water to begin operating, and the prosperity of this departure in gravel mining is dependent entirely upon ample and uninterrupted water.

Mrs. Elenore E. Hoeft De Ein has filed an amended notice of location on the Dipper Extension quartz claim in the Alleghany Mining District.

Carrol L. Bandy has located the Water Fall Ext. No. 1 Placer claim the N½ of the NW¼ of the NW¼ of Sec. 34, TWp. 20 N., R. 12 E.

A. B. Campbell has located the Water Fall Ext. No. 2 Placer Claim, the N½ of the NE¼ of the NE¼ of Sec. 33, Twp. 20 N., R. 12 E.

Two shifts have been put on at the Comet power house, and it is expected that the mill at the mine will be increased by another shift.

Fred Hughes and Jack Thomas have left for Gold Valley, where they have mining interests.

H. B. and Stanley McCormick have finished installing the hoist at the Telegraph Mine and have returned to Downieville.

DOWNIEVILLE CORRESPONDENT TALKS OF YUBA PASS

Elbert Hubbard's rat-trap story might be true of rat traps, but Mr. Hubbard did not live along the Yuba Pass highway, or he would have qualified his statement that the world will beat a path to the door of the man that makes the best.

The Yuba Pass has been opened almost continuously this winter, and has been, is now and will continue to afford quick passage between California and Nevada, but the Powers That Be are making no attempt to recognize its value.

The advantage of this route are so many and so evident that the recitation of them is an old story to the people of Sierra and Nevada county, but if arguments have reached the ears of Sacramento county they have evidently found the auditors deaf.

The Yuba Pass route is the last pass closed in the winter, the first opened in the summer, and the only one possible to keep open throughout the winter. But 14.5 miles of its length lie above the 5000 foot level, where the snow fall is heaviest, an advantage that no road over the Sierras can even approach.

The State of California has built 46 miles of highway between Downieville and Nevada City, for which the mountain districts are grateful. The Federal Government has completed 18 miles of splendid road between Sattley and Sierra City, over the summit of the Sierra, which has been of inestimable value to the district, and is thankfully appreciated.

But with the completion of this program the State and Federal Governments have apparently taken the attitude that they have done sufficient road construction for Sierra county, and repeated requests for the consideration of the 13 mile link between Downieville and Sierra City, to join the two highways has met either with indifference or refusal.

The finished roads are not Sierra County's, nor are they Nevada County's or any other individual municipality's. They belong to the State of California; they belong to the motorists and transportation companies of the State, and are used by them. The local use of the road is but a small percentage of the year's traffic. Sacramento county would benefit more by the improvement of this route than would Sierra county, and the same is true of Alameda, San Francisco, of any other county in Northern California interested in the trans-Sierran traffic.

If the Highway Commission would attack the feasibility of Downieville-Sierra City link, the road might soon be built. Any argument against this route could be refuted to the satisfaction of the most indifferent. It is the complete silence of the Commission that the Mountain districts cannot fight. It would be an easy matter to convince a serious committee interested in examining the advantages of vaious routes thrt the Yuba Pass is carrying traffic long after Pass IS carrying traffic long after every other route over the range is closed; that it IS resuming spring traffic long before any other road is cleared; that it IS a direct route between Sacramento and Reno; that it CAN be kept open continuously with negligable expense; that it will insure steady interstate traffic without winter interruption and that but 13 miles of road need be improved to solidify the system.

But when these facts are neither sought afte nor listened to, it will be difficult to bring sufficient pressure to bear by the users of Northern California roads to force the improvement of this route.

Motorists are repeatedly advised in the Sacramento Valley that the Pass is closed when it is open. Occasionally uninformed representatives of the Automobile Association declare that the road is impassable beyond Nevada City, when quick passage is being enjoyed into Nevada. Newspapers repeatedly include the Yuba Pass in the list of closed roads over the Sierra, when, as a matter of fact, it is invariably the only road open.

Sierra County can do little against this propaganda. Nevada County can do little, unassisted. But the thousands of motorists that know this route, that use this route continuously, can force its consideration by the Highway Cossission.

When it can be ascertained the Yuba Pass route is repeatedly ignored, and other roads of less importance to Northern California are improved at far greater expense than this route would require, we will begin to get the nigger in the State woodpile. Is it because Sierra and Nevada counties are politically unimportant? Is it because private interests are unwilling to acknowledge the relative inferiority of other routes, and thus yield the traffic they now enjoy?

It is certainly not ignorance on the importance of the Yuba Pass; there are sufficient people in Northern California ready to tell about it.

This is not a Sierra County or Nevada County affair. It is of vital interest to the Northern part of the State, and therefore it is a Northern California fight. Sierra County is trying to improve this 13 mile link The meager sum available for road work is being spent judiciously in the widening of this road, but before the County can put this short stretch in condition equal to that of the two highways it connects, the grandson of the youngest driver of today will have a beard long enough to foul his clutch.

We have long tried to show WHY the road should be improved. Now let's find out w'hy it ISN'T improved.
